El Sistema de Bibliotecas del Condado de Orange conmemora el mes de la Historia Afroamericana con eventos virtuales en febrero

Celebra el mes de la historia afroamericana desde casa con los atractivos programas educativos presentados por la biblioteca. El 12 de febrero, disfruta de la actuación en vivo del cantante y compositor nominado al Grammy, Nathi Gcabashe, de Durban, Sudáfrica. Aprende a perfeccionar y diseñar una envoltura para la cabeza el 20 de febrero durante el taller de peinado Rock the Wrap: Headwrap. Sigue paso a paso las instrucciones profesionales sobre esta técnica de envoltura y aprende su significado. El 22 de febrero, únete a Hebni Nutrition que en vivo por Zoom será el anfitrión de Cuisine Corner: Black-Eyed Pea Salad.

Este febrero, muestra a tus seres queridos lo mucho que te importan con regalos caseros que aprendiste a hacer con la biblioteca. Mejora tus habilidades de escritura el 8 de febrero con proyectos para el día de San Valentín. La instructora de caligrafía Lynda Chandler demuestra cómo hacer obsequios creativos y únicos utilizando este arte.

Todos nuestros eventos son virtuales y están disponibles en línea de forma gratuita con una tarjeta del Sistema de Bibliotecas del Condado de Orange. Si tienes alguna pregunta sobre la información que se comparte a continuación, comunícate con nosotros al 407-835-7323. Visítanos en línea en ocls.info para obtener una lista completa de todos los eventos de la biblioteca.
