About Melrose Film Festival

Driven by innovation and creativity the Melrose Film Festival highlights the work of imaginative filmmakers across the globe. The annual festival is dedicated to celebrating the art of visual storytelling in short films, animation and music videos. Normally held in the Melrose Center, the festival features screenings, industry panels and Q/A sessions. This year, Melrose Center staff will also offer virtual events from September 15 – 17, with topics like scene and character development, sound effects, and 3D and motion capture animation.

Dorothy Lumley Melrose Center for Technology, Innovation & Creativity

Located in Downtown Orlando The Dorothy Lumley Melrose Center is a creative technology workspace that expands the role of the library. Featuring audio, photo and video studios, fabrication, game design and simulation labs, and an array of editing computers, the center offers training for users to develop skills that enable full use of facility resources. The Melrose Center is located on the second floor of the Orlando Public Library at 101 E. Central Blvd. Orlando, FL 32801.
