The library hosts a homeschool workshop for parents, plus fun-filled events for the family this November

On November 12 the library hosts Homeschool – How to Get Started, a workshop for those who are interested in home education. Hear from professionals and longtime home educators as they share valuable insight such as curriculum choices and structuring a day of learning. A Q&A will follow this session.

The Sunshine State Jr. Book Club meets on November 18 for a read aloud of this month's featured book, Piranhas Don't Eat Bananas. Then on November 23 bring the family together for Zoom Family Game Night where library staff will lead exciting games the whole family will enjoy.

These virtual events and more are available to you online for free with your Orange County Library card. If you have any questions about the information shared below, contact us at 407-835-7323. Check us out online at ocls.info for a complete listing of all library events.
