This January at Orange County Library System: Explore Learning Resources and Spend an Evening with Author Nicholas Sparks

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec 18, 2025) Orange County Library System is kicking off 2026 with beloved author Nicholas Sparks at the 2nd annual Lillian Louise Pharr Author Series event January 17 at Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts. The iconic storyteller will discuss his inspiration and stories and answer questions submitted in advance. Ticket sales and question submissions are at ocls.org/NicholasSparks.

January is the right time to plan for a successful year and try something new, and your OCLS library card can help you do just that. Whether you're looking to learn new skills or land a new job; help your child excel at school or prepare for tests; or boost your budget and reduce spending, OCLS has the tools you need.

Unlock learning resources like free access to LinkedIn Learning and OCLS' Search and Apply for Jobs, where you can get hands-on help navigating job search websites and applications. When homework questions have you stumped, use Brainfuse for one-on-one tutoring and test prep. Plus, you can access e-books and stream movies, TV and music ad-free and without paying for subscriptions.

Your library also offers lots of fun, hands-on, free entertainment and experiences. You and your family can enjoy STEM and art classes, LEGO programs for all ages, and technology classes to learn new skills. Central Florida Fair will visit library locations January 13-27 with Tales from the Farm, a farm-themed storytime with an animal meet-and-greet.

Looking for ways to help your kids build smart, safe Internet habits? Learn tips and good practices with Be Safe Online, offered for kids ages 6–12 at branches throughout Orange County. Adults can also learn how to spot misinformation, detect bias and understand AI with Using Media & AI Literacy Tools.

Please note, all OCLS locations will be closed December 31 and January 1 in observance of the New Year.

Orange County Library System (OCLS) is a public library system serving Orange County, Fla. With 15 public locations and a vast network of online and outreach resources, OCLS enriches lives through experiences and opportunities to learn, grow and connect. From cutting edge technology and inventive fiber arts to enriching storytimes and bestselling author events, OCLS employees bring innovation and education to more than 4 million visitors in our branches and beyond.
